

Emily Dickinson's Garden: The Poetry of Flowers

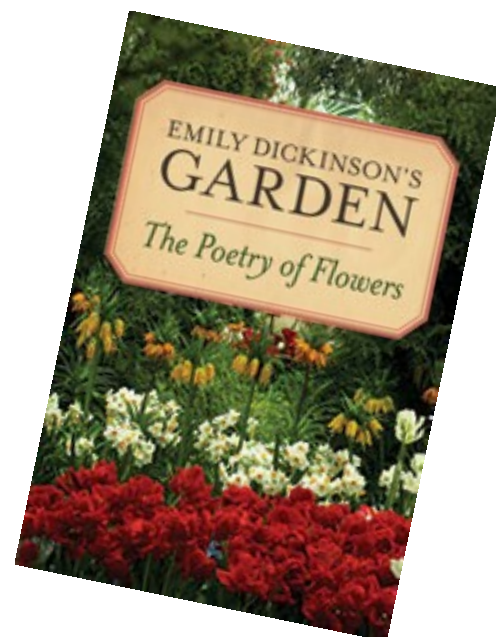

Join the Friends of Scranton Library on a trip to
New York Botanical Garden

THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 2010

Deadline May 20 to reserve a seat

- Her Garden: Tour her Victorian home and garden recreated in the Conservatory filled with tulips, lilacs, lilies and more.
- Her Poetry: Stroll through Garden paths and read some of Dickinson's most famous works surrounded by flowers that inspired them.
- Her Life: Discover an engaging perspective through letters, artifacts, books and images in the Gallery exhibition.

$45 ticket includes deluxe coach, entry fee, grounds transportation (lunch on your own)

Checks to FOSL (Friends of Scranton Library)

Make your reservation with payment at the Scranton Library or mail to 801 Boston Post Rd. Madison, CT 06443 203-245-7365

Coach leaves Exit 61 I-95 Commuter Lot at 8:30 am
Return Leaving New York at 4 pm