

Bequest Gift

Scranton Memorial Library's mission is to improve the quality of life for all Madison residents by providing access to information, fostering lifelong educational and cultural learning, and cultivating relationships among our residents through the exchange of ideas.

A bequest gift is a gift from your estate – a transfer of cash, stocks, bonds or other property made through your estate plans. You can make a bequest to Scranton Memorial Library by including language in your will or living trust leaving a portion of your estate to the Library, or by designating E. C. Scranton Memorial Library as a beneficiary of your retirement account or life insurance policy. Remembering Scranton Memorial Library with a bequest from your estate will help sustain and strengthen the Library in years to come. Some advantages of creating a bequest include:

- A bequest costs nothing now, yet gives you the satisfaction of knowing you have provided for Scranton Memorial Library in the future.
- You retain control of and use of your assets during your lifetime.
- You may modify your bequest if your circumstances change.
- Gifts to Scranton Memorial Library from your estate are exempt from federal estate taxes.
- If you let Scranton Memorial Library know of your plans, we will be able to thank you now and recognize you as a member of the Scranton Society, open to supporters of our library who let us know of their planned giving arrangements.
